

Staying at Rice Terraces Villa

~Ultimate Escape from city life at Japanese Traditional Farm House ~

How about choosing 'Rice Terraces Villa' for your ultimate escape from city life? We introduce a private villa which is restored "kominka", Japanese traditional style house with thatched roof. It presents private stay for only one group per night, up to 10 people (negotiable in case of more than 10). The villa is located in the Quasi-National Park that spans Nara and Mie prefecture where accessible from Kyoto. Here you can enjoy the panoramic view from the villa of spanning rice terraces on the mountainside, which seasonally changes with various flowers and biotope grown, restored by the village community.
